

An exceptional George II carved mahogany tilt-top tripod table in the manner of William Vile (1700 - 1767)

£8,500

REF: 5141

Height: 76.5 cm (30.1")

Width: 81 cm (31.9")

Depth: 81 cm (31.9")

Description

The unusually shaped tilt top with a conforming gallery on a fluted and carved column stem on three shaped legs finely carved with flowers and leaves terminating in a carved pad foot.

England, circa 1755

Provenance: from a private Scottish estate

Vile was one of the best cabinetmakers of the Early Georgian period (1745-1780), second only to Chippendale and he was awarded the Royal Warrant to make furniture for King George III, based on his superb quality and the individuality of his designs.
