Short Description

The painted string and wicker frame with high arms and square fronts. In the manner of Hans Vollmer.

Austria, circa 1910

The Vienna Secession was an art movement formed in 1897 by a group of Austrian artists, sculptors and architects who resigned from the Association of Austrian Artists in order to pursue their own artistic style - the beginning of modern art in Austria. The group included eminent artists such as Gustav Klimt, Egon Schiele, Koloman Moser and Josef Hoffmann.
